Dear Trace:

I want to thank you for volunteering your time and energy to help create an amazing event. Trace,

Now that the dust has settled a little from the 32nd Annual IAJE International Conference in Long Beach, I am writing to express my appreciation for the incredible level of support that Goodman Audio Services provided during our event.

Despite the rainy weather, we had a great conference. Many have said that it was one of the best conferences yet. There is no question that much of our success can be attributed to the great work that you, Jeff and all of the rest of the crew from Goodman Audio did to make things sound good.

If there is one element of our conference that needs to be right, it's sound. I was very pleased with how things worked this year. We appreciated your diligence during the preparation and the information that you provided to our audio crew as we approached the show.

I also appreciated the fact that you took the time to follow up with feedback and observations that can help us make things even better next year. I couldn't have been more pleased with our relationship.

Please convey our appreciation to everyone there who worked on the show with you and Jeff. I will look forward to the opportunity of working with you guys again in the future.

Sincerely,
